

LIABILITY RELEASE

The Book Arts League welcomes you and requests that you sign and date this liability release for personal injury or property damage while inside the Ewing Bunkhouse Print Shop and around the property grounds. At present, the Farmhouse is off limits to the public.

There are certain unique risks and hazards associated with working and being inside or around the Print Shop and its printing equipment. Some of these risks and hazards are, but not limited to:

- tripping and falling;
- slipping and falling;
- accidentally dropping type cases;
- accidentally getting body parts and/or clothing caught in the presses and other moving machinery;
- getting cut or injured by the equipment.

Also, much of the printing equipment is old and either cannot be replaced or would be very difficult or impossible to replace. Please be careful using all the equipment and tools. The user is responsible for repairing, replacing, or reimbursing the League for any damage to the Print Shop equipment or tools.

If you bring children into the Print Shop you are also responsible for their safety. Pay particular attention that they do not open type cabinets and that the children stand well away from all presses and equipment at all times to avoid injury.

By signing below you affirm that you understand and freely accept the risks associated with visiting and/or using the printing equipment in the Print Shop. If you bring children to the shop, you also agree to sign this release on their behalf.

You agree to indemnify The Book Arts League and the City of Lafayette, their directors, officers, employees, volunteers and agents and to hold them harmless from any damages, losses, costs, expenses, claims, suits, and judgments for personal injury, death or property damage arising out of your using any of the printing presses or printing equipment in the Print Shop or observing the use of the printing presses or printing equipment. By signing below you also agree to be solely responsible for all costs and expenses to repair or replace any of the presses or equipment in the Print Shop.
